Abstract

There has been a lot of activities surrounding the Marine Hull War space. This is due to piracy and hijackings in Africa, political violence risks in the Persian Gulf and now the world is reeling from the effects of the war between Russia and Ukraine.

In this presentation, we will cover:
- Marine High Risk Areas
- Technical requirements insuring piracy and hijacking risks
- Sanctions
- Insurance solutions

About the Speaker

EJ joined the marine insurance industry in 2007 with a Marine Diploma from Singapore Polytechnic and a Bachelor of Science (Economics) degree from Singapore Management University. He achieved chartered status in 2010, and worked as a marine insurance underwriter and regional manager in Lloyd's syndicates for over 10 years. Recently, he joined Edge Insurance Brokers from a Mitsui Sumitomo insurer and now represents shipowners and marine clients to arrange and procure insurance solutions from global capital and insurance markets.
