A Night on Board the "Golden Hinde II"

An educational and networking event on board the ship

Event to be held at

Golden Hinde Trust#
Units 1 & 2 Pickfords Wharf#
Clink Street#
London SE1 9DG

at 18:15 for 18:30 hours

Members and non-members will have the opportunity to experience a guided tour onboard a full size reconstruction of a galleon, a 16th century ship used by Sir Francis Drake to circumnavigate the globe in 1577 and 1580.

Free for members while non-members will be charged a nominal fee of £4.

Please join us thereafter for a networking social event in the Old Thameside Inn located within a short stroll of Clink Street. Consumption of food and drinks at this pub is at your expense.

There are a limited number of places available and reservation via email is required.

Continuing Professional Development (CPD) Certificates will not be available for this event.

Please advise the Honorary Secretary if you are attending the event.
