

The Royal Institution of Naval Architects

Human Factors 2020 Conference

19 - 20 February 2020, London, UK

Wednesday 19th February
08.50-09.15	Coffee and Registration
09.15-09.20	Welcome Address , D. Ponkratov, Technical Director, The Royal Institution of Naval Architects, UK
09.20-09.55	Towards the Development of Ergonomic Classification - A Case Study in Safe Access and Egress D. Oakley, University of Southampton, UK J.V. Earthy, A. J. Gibbin, Lloyd's Register, UK
09.55-10.30	Human Factors Integration in submarine spatial design J. Clarke, BAE Systems Submarines, UK
10.30-10.50	Coffee
10.50-11.25	Improving Human-centred Design application in the maritime industry – challenges and opportunities V. Dung Vu, M. Lützhöft, Western Norway University of Applied Sciences, Norway
11.25-12.00	'Designing in' the human element: Recommendations for improvements to vessel accommodation I. L. Acejo, Cardiff University, UK
12.00-13.30	Lunch
13.30-14.05	The operator's stake in shore control center design: a stakeholder analysis for autonomous ships E. Veitch, NTNU, Norway A. Hynnekleiv and M. Lützhöft, HVL, Norway
14.05-14.40	Human Factor and Automation: A STPA Approach to Enhance Ship Safety P. Gualeni, C. Bongermينو, University of Genoa, Italy
14.40-15.00	Coffee
15.00-15.35	Development, test and selection of a shock mitigation seat for an all-weather lifeboat T. Gunston, Coast Dynamics Group, Canada A. Clarke, RNLI, UK
15.35-16.10	Cybersickness and evaluation of a remediation system L. Andre, R. Coutellier, Naval Group, France
16.10-18.00	Discussion and Drinks Reception

* This represents a preliminary agenda, please contact conference@rina.org.uk for any query.

The Royal Institution of Naval Architects

Human Factors 2020 Conference

19 - 20 February 2020, London, UK

Thursday 20th February
08.55-09.20	Coffee and Registration
09.20-09.55	Another series of unfortunate events: A failure of Situational Awareness M. J. Cook, BAE Systems, UK
09.55-10.30	Towards an Ecosystem of Skills in the Future Maritime Industry A. Hynnekleiv and M. Lutzhoft, Western Norway University of Applied Sciences, Norway J. V. Earthy, Lloyds Register, UK and Western Norway University of Applied Sciences, Norway
10.30-10.50	Coffee
10.50-11.25	Moving Havens: an application of the e-Navigation service route-exchange T. Porathe, Norwegian University of Science and Technology, Norway
11.25-12.00	Human Factors Related to Autonomous Ship Operations E. Aa Dahle, Deck officer, Norway K. Bentzrod, Master Mariner, Hoegh LNG, Norway N. H. Lund, Master Mariner and Maritime Government Pilot (Ret.), Norway
12.00-13.00	Lunch
13.00-13.35	The community of ship-handlers and pilots: Training, collaboration and good practice today and in the future. R. J. Wild, Solent University, UK M. Lützhöft, Western Norway University of Applied Sciences, Norway
13.35-14.10	That Unrelenting 80% E. Verbeek, Netherlands Pilot Cooperative, Netherlands
14.10-14.45	Perceptions of the West and the East and National Culture on the Human Factors Y. Kwon, Chosun University, Republic of Korea
14.45-15.05	Coffee
15.05-16.05	Final Address and discussion
16.05-16.30	Closure

* This represents a preliminary agenda, please contact conference@rina.org.uk for any query.