THE ROYAL INSTITUTION OF NAVAL ARCHITECTS

Founded in 1860, The Royal Institution of Naval Architects is an internationally renowned professional institution whose members are involved at all levels in the design, construction, repair and management of ships, boats and marine structures. The Institution has over 9000 Members in over 90 countries, and is widely represented in industry, universities and maritime organisations. Membership is open to those qualified in naval architecture, or who are involved or interested in the maritime industry. Membership demonstrates the achievement of internationally recognised standards of professional competence. The Institution publishes a range of technical journals, books and papers, and organises an extensive programme of conferences, seminars and training courses covering all aspects of naval architecture and maritime technology.

PUBLICATIONS

The RINA has established an excellent reputation for producing Technical Journals, Conference Proceedings and Transactions of the highest quality covering all aspects of naval architecture and the maritime industry in general. ANNUAL PUBLICATIONS

SIGNIFICANT SHIPS OF 2015

Ref: SIGS15

One of RINA's most popular publications. Significant Ships has been published annually every February since 1990 and presents in one volume approximately 50 of the best commercial designs, completed by shipyards worldwide in the preceding year. Emphasis is placed on newbuildings over 100m in length, although some significant smaller cargo ships, fast ferries and offshore vessels may also be considered. Concise technical information, general arrangement plans and a colour illustration of each ship appears. This publication is an invaluable reference to all those involved in ship design, building and operation. Individual copies or a set from 1993-2014 can be purchased. For further information please contact the Publications Department.

SIGNIFICANT SMALL SHIPS 2015

Ref: SSC15

The Royal Institution of Naval Architect will publish Significant Small Ships of 2015, in February 2016, following the success of the previous editions and the lead set by Significant Ships, now in its 17th year of publication. A total of approximately 28 new vessels will be selected for inclusion, each being singularly significant or the first in a series these will be divided into categories-fast ferries and passenger vessels, tugs and workboats, fishing, offshore patrol etc: This mixed but fascinating selection of vessels, all between 25m and 100m, will be hand picked by the same editorial team that produces Ship & Boat International, RINA's own leading small ship publication, and is backed by its world-renowned resources.

RINA CONFERENCE PROCEEDINGS

Available in printed format or CD ROM

RINA organises a successful and well-respected programme of international conferences, covering a broad range of experience and opinion on research, developments and operation on all aspects of naval architecture and maritime technology. Details of papers contained in each proceeding including abstracts, are available in the searchable RINA Publications Database on the RINA Website at www.rina.org.uk. The CD ROM versions are available from Hydrodynamics of High Speed Craft held in 1999 and every conference held thereafter. A full timetable for 2015 is published on page 12 of this catalogue.

The Royal Institution of Naval Architects

International Journal of Maritime Engineering 2016

The RINA will publish the first part of the International Journal of Maritime Engineering (IJME) in March 2016, and the subsequent parts in June, September and December.

The IJME provides a forum for the reporting and discussion on technical and scientific issues associated with the design and construction of marine vessels and offshore structures. The IJME will be published four times a year as Part A1-A4 of the Transactions of The Royal Institution of Naval Architects. The IJME is essential reading for all those concerned with this sector of the global maritime industry.

To subscribe to the IJME or to purchase the Transactions of the Royal Institution of Naval Architects please call the Marketing Department on Tel: 00 44 (0)20 7235 4622 Fax: 00 44 (0)20 7259 5912 email: publications@rina.org.uk

International Journal of Small Craft Technology 2016

The RINA will publish the first part of the International Journal of Small Craft Technology (IJST) in June 2016. This publication is published bi-annually in June and December.

The International Journal of Small Craft Technology is published as Part B1-B2 of the Transactions of The Royal Institution of Naval Architects and provides a forum for the reporting and discussion on technical and scientific issues associated with research and development of recreational and commercial small craft through peer-reviewed papers and technical notes. The IJST is essential reading for all those concerned with this sector of the global maritime industry.

To subscribe to the IJST or to purchase the Transactions of the Royal Institution of Naval Architects please call the Marketing Department on Tel: 00 44 (0)20 7235 4622 Fax: 00 44 (0)20 7259 5912 email: publications@rina.org.uk

RINA TRANSACTIONS

The Institution publishes a wide range of technical and scientific papers in the fields of naval architecture and maritime technology as its Transactions. Prior to 2003, these were published in two or three issues per year as Softback Transactions (from 1988 to 2002). The Transactions & Annual Report has been published since 1860, and contains all papers published during the year in the periodic Softback Transactions, as well as the Annual Report of the Institution. From 2003, all papers previously published in the Softback Transactions are published in a series of International Journals, with each Journal forming a Part of the Transactions & Annual Report.

Part A of the Transactions is the International Journal of Maritime Engineering, (IJME) which is published in March, June, September and December. The IJME provides a forum for the reporting and discussion of technical and scientific issues associated with the design, construction and operation of marine vessels and offshore structures.

Part B of the Transactions is the International Journal of Small Craft Technology, (IJSCT) which is published in June and December. The IJSCT provides a forum for the specialist reporting and discussion on technical and scientific issues associated with research and development of recreational and commercial small craft.

The IJME and IJSCT are available in printed format, on CD-ROM or online on the RINA Website at www.rina.org.uk. Subscribers to the printed or CD-ROM format will receive a free subscription to the online format. All papers published during the year in the IJME and IJSCT will form Part A and Part B of the Transactions and Annual Report, (Hardback) available in printed format only and published the following year, ie: 2015 will be published in 2016.

If you would like to subscribe to the 2016 IJME, IJSCT or the annual Transactions and Annual Report, please contact the Bookshop email: publications@rina.org.uk. Softback and Hardback Transactions published before 2003 can also be ordered through the Bookshop, where available. Details of papers published in the Transactions, including abstracts, are available in the searchable RINA Publications Database on the RINA Website at www.rina.org.uk

Please Note: You can now buy a full set of the Transaction Papers on CD ROM from 1860 to 2015 - Price: RINA Member £340 Non - Member £375 (includes p&p). You can also purchase your selection of individual papers & volumes of the Transactions from 1860-2015 on CD ROM. Please contact the Publications Department on publications@rina.org.uk for further information and prices. Please note: Minimum order value £10 if paying by credit card or bank transfer.
